

An Expert Among Experts

Dr. Rumberger is recognized as the world's leading authority on cardiac and vascular imaging using EBT. His notable credentials make him uniquely qualified to evaluate results:

Diplomat of the American Boards of Internal Medicine and Cardiovascular Diseases

Fellow of the American College of Cardiology

Established Investigator of the American Heart Association

Founding Member of the International Society of Atherosclerosis Imaging

Reviewer for the Journal of the American Medical Association, Archives of Internal Medicine, publications of both the American Heart Association and American College of Cardiology, and the New England Journal of Medicine

Former full Professor of Medicine and Cardiovascular Diseases within the Mayo School of Graduate Medical Education and the Mayo Clinic

During his over 20 year career as a clinician, educator, and researcher, Dr. Rumberger has published nearly 500 scientific papers and book chapters. He has lectured worldwide on EBT, early disease diagnosis, and wellness.

A Legacy of Achievement

Dr. Rumberger received his doctorate in engineering from The Ohio State University in 1976 and graduated from the University of Miami School of Medicine in 1978. He completed his internship and residency in internal medicine at The Ohio State University Hospitals, and completed a cardiovascular diseases fellowship and early faculty development at the University of Iowa. Prior to his current position, Dr. Rumberger was Professor of Medicine and Consultant in the Department of Cardiovascular Diseases at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. It was during this time that his reputation as a leader in the development and application of computed tomography (EBT) of the heart was established. He has published extensively and continues to lecture and train other physicians in the United States, Europe, and Asia.
